STATE OF THE ACCOUNTS

OF THE

COUNTY LIEUTENANTS

DURING THE

WAR OF THE REVOLUTION,

1777-1789.

EDITED BY

VOLUME ONE.

CLARENCE M. BUSCH,
STATE PRINTER OF PENNSYLVANIA.

PREFATORY NOTE.

A complete set of the accounts of the Lieutenants and Sub-Lieutenants of the several counties of Pennsylvania during the War of the Revolution would certainly be a desideratum. They may at the first glance appear to be mainly statistical, but in reality contain much that will give an insight into the struggle for independence. They give the times of warning the militia, the services of the recruiting officers of the Pennsylvania Line, the names of many who fell in battle, the county contributing to the support of their widows, with the names of many soldiers who served at one time or another a tour of duty, and yet when business or other necessities prevented paid their fines like patriots should. These exercise men are to be distinguished from the non-associators, men who never even shouldered a gun or countenanced the great struggle for liberty. It is presumed that all the former were in actual service when the call to arms was urgent—notably in 1776 and 1777—and again in 1778. In many instances, the exercise days interfered with their business, farming especially, and a fine paid was better than the neglecting of their several occupations. These accounts give us the military service of many whose names do not elsewhere appear upon our records. For these reasons, the accounts are published in the Archives, not only for preservation, but for permanent reference. It is proper, in conclusion, to state that in most instances the names are spelled phonetically, and the correct orthography must be left to those searching the records. Again, it is possible that this series of documents are not absolutely complete, but that is only an additional reason for their publication at this time.

OF THE ADDITIONAL TAXES UPON THOSE AGED ABOVE FIFTY-THREE YEARS, AND UPON NON-JURORS; ALSO THE TAX UPON CASH IN THE CITY AND SEVERAL COUNTIES.

By an act passed December 26, 1777, for making more equal the burthen of the public defence, &c. the estates of persons above fifty-three years of age, and not militia men, are directed to be taxed annually in a sum equal to the amount of state tax thereupon, to be collected and paid into the Treasury, for the use of the state, which continued in force until Nov. 27, 1779.

There hath been an additional tax upon non-jurors, which the law directs should be paid into the Treasury.

By the act for raising the quota of the forty-five million tax, passed the 10th of October, 1779, and the act for raising the first eight monthly taxes, a tax of three pence per pound was laid upon cash.—No monies have been paid into the State Treasury by any of the County Treasurers on account of the above taxes, except the following, viz:

There are also balances due from several of the counties in the Eighteen-penny Taxes, the Five Shilling Tax, the Double Tax and the Tax upon Cash, but as these taxes are not quotaed on the respective counties and the amount of the duplicates being subject to deduction by the expences of assessing, levying, collecting and paying, and by remitting orders in favor of insolvents, the sum due to the state cannot be defined.
